

Major Nixon Issues Will Have to Wait

By WALTER R. MEARS
AP Political Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Nixon has acknowledged that virtually all his major legislative proposals will be held over by Congress until next year, Republican sources say.

At a lengthy session Tuesday with GOP congressional leaders, Nixon put his legislative proposals on a green-light, red-light basis, the sources said.

In the green-light classification were bills the President will press for immediate action. But these generally were measures Congress must consider this year since they extend programs already operating.

The red light group designated proposals Nixon is said to feel won't be acted on until next year—including most of his major recommendations.

Among the measures rated in the red light category:

- Postal reform creating a self-sustaining corporation to take over the mails.
- Crime-fighting measures including bills on organized crime, illegal gambling, and immunity from prosecution so testimony can be pried from reluctant witnesses.
- Among the other Nixon measures already assigned to the red light list are his welfare, manpower and revenue sharing proposals; drug control; mass transit development; unemployment insurance and voting rights revision and extension.
- Among the bills rated on Nixon's green light program were foreign aid, export control, food stamps, housing, aid for hospital construction, student loans, education aid, obscenity control and coal mine safety.

Nixon also told the leaders he wants action this year to extend the income surtax, and provide tax relief and reform.

Senate Democrats have refused to approve a long term surtax extension without tax reform. The latter issue is now before the Senate Finance Committee.

Nixon also was quoted as urging swift action on draft reform — an unlikely prospect.

After nine months in session, Congress has acted on little major legislation. The Senate, for example, has been locked all summer in debate on a single bill, the $20 billion military authorization measure.

Zeuxis, a famous Greek painter of the late fifth century B.C., is said to have painted a bunch of grapes that looked so natural that birds pecked at them.

Senate Critics of Spending Are Losing

By CARL P. LEUBSDORF
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — Senate critics of defense spending, after losing all attempts to halt or cutback new weapons programs, have opened their final drive to amend the $20 billion military procurement authorization.

Sen. John Sherman Cooper, R-Ky., presented an amendment scheduled for a vote today, to restrict U.S. military aid to Laos and Thailand to supplies and equipment—no combat troops.

Also awaiting a vote was a girl—thus parlaying his fortune — as it is to marry a poor girl with no social position.

Alas, for the fading dreams of the poor working girl. But an even colder-watered truth applies to the poor young man who wants to wed a millionaire.

Even if this dream should come true, it probably would turn into a nightmare. For when a rich woman marries a poor man for his charm she gets the better of the bargain. She gets his charm—but that doesn't mean he gets her money.

A rich woman tends to wear a poor husband as if he were a watchfob. He is a dollar-pecked prisoner of her purse strings and must beg prettily for his spending money or a new suit. She may give him a bright new sports car, but if that same evening she thinks he pays too much attention to another woman, she can take it back the next morning. And she will.

compromise version of a proposal for a check on defense contract profits.

Sen. John C. Stennis, D-Miss., chairman of the Armed Services Committee, said he hoped these votes might mean an end to Senate debate on the measure which has been before the chamber since July 7.

The Senate Tuesday slapped down the last attempt to cut a major military project, voting 56-31 against an amendment to trim funds for the Advanced Manned Strategic Aircraft.

Russia, U.S. to Discuss Middle East

WASHINGTON (AP) — The U.S. and Soviet governments have agreed to resume discussions of the Middle East crisis in New York Thursday, a State Department spokesman said Wednesday.

The New York meeting will be held by Asst. Secretary of State Joseph J. Sisco and Soviet Ambassador Anatoly Dobrynin who originally began the talks on the Israeli-Arab crisis in Washington early this year.

NIXON HOPES

sources said Tuesday they had no indication Nixon was abandoning his hope.

However, Nixon is trying to avoid committing himself to any future cuts or to tying himself to any specific dates for reviewing the war situation.

However, it is known that top Pentagon authorities have been thinking in terms of a possible additional pullout decision every three or four months.

Under such a concept, it is possible Nixon could take another hard look in late November or early December and then announce plans for a third reduction.

Thus, the announcement could be made during 1969, although the actual withdrawal could be spaced over a period of time stretching into the early months of 1970.

By the time the 35,000 man withdrawal is complete, the United States military presence in South Vietnam will be down around 484,000, the lowest in nearly two years.

White House sources said the forces to be pulled back include mostly ground units, about half combat and half support troops.

Mrs. Janelle McCaskill Smith, 42, native of McCaskill, died Tuesday at Fayetteville. She was the daughter of Mrs. Clio McCaskill and the late Chester McCaskill, a graduate of the University of Arkansas and taught in the Fayetteville school system. She was a Methodist and member of Kappa Kappa Gamma sorority.

Surviving are her husband, Samuel C. Smith, a daughter, Linda Kay and a son, Brian Smith, both of the home; her mother Mrs. Clio McCaskill of Blevins; and her grandmother Mrs. P.H. Stephens of Blevins.

A memorial to Mrs. Smith will be established in her name at the Roberta Fulbright Library at Fayetteville.

Services were held Wednesday at Moore's Funeral Chapel of Fayetteville with burial in Fairview Cemetery.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill. (AP) — Ralph T. Smith, the speaker of the Illinois House, was named by Gov. Richard B. Ogilvie today to fill the Illinois seat in the U.S. Senate left vacant by the death of Sen. Everett M. Dirksen.

Smith, a Republican from Alton, was the expected choice after Atty. Gen. William J. Scott withdrew from the race Monday. Rep. John B. Anderson, R-Ill., of Rockford, also was a strong contender to succeed Dirksen who died Sept. 7 in Washington.

Ogilvie made the announcement in his office. Smith, his wife, and Sen. Charles H. Percy, R-Ill., were present.

Imagination Can Do An Awful Lot

By LOUISE COOK
Associated Press Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — "If you've got a pair of pliers and imagination, you can do an awful lot," said an assistant to jewelry designer Bill Smith as she held up a pair of pants made of gold coils.

The pants, along with a matching vest, were one of a number of items at a show Tuesday night of Smith's latest jewelry.

The 34-year-old designer, one of the first Negroes in the business, creates dresses, suits, capes, pants, halters and hats of rhinestones, pearls, black beads and metal chains.

Smith said his designs are "jewelry as clothing. They are strong enough so they can be clothing in themselves."

A former dancer who worked in a jewelry factory when he first came to New York and finally decided he preferred jewelry, he said his designs "can be worn over clothing or instead of clothing."

The models Tuesday draped the jewels over simple jersey dresses by Jon Haggins, over body stockings and over bare skin.

Among the standout items were a long scarf of pearls, trimmed with cloth tassels, a metal cape with "pearlized" corks, a floor-length skirt of ropes of pearls, a short skirt and vest of jet beads and a pearl cape.

There are about two dozen pieces in the collection for Richlieu, retailing for between $35 and $250. The pearl scarf, for example, is $150.

Smith admitted that "not ev-

TV Networks to Resist Censorship

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Spokesmen of two major television networks say they plan to resist censorship and cater to more sophisticated viewers, but that orders to play down violence will stay in effect.

"Television is becoming more permissive all the time," Michael H. Dann, CBS-TV senior vice president for programs, told a meeting of nearly 400 broadcasting and advertising executives Tuesday.

"I know we are going to continue to be more adult."

Mort Werner, NBC-TV vice president for programs and talent, said he saw no concerted drive to censor telecasts and as

A Picture Story Of Wide Appeal

JAVA DIARY. By Eliot Elisofon. Macmillan, $9.95.

Elisofon's lavishly illustrated book is of interest to the adventure fan and explorer (exotic jungle scenes), the nature buff (strange animals and birds), the camera fan (this famous photographer gives notes on the way he shoots his pictures) and — oddly enough — the gourmet.

The author spent about three months late in 1967 taking photographs for a magazine article on Indonesian wildlife, his prime goal being a picture of a nearly extinct one-horned rhinoceros that is found only on the western tip of Java, in a nature reserve named Ujung Kulon.

As a sideline he kept a diary, making most of the entries while waiting in a blind for the desired bird or animal to come within range. He caught everything from a barking deer to monitor lizards and a bird called the chestnut-headed bee-eater.

He talks about the scientists who helped him, the natives who were part of his crew and who often drove him to distraction, and his adventures and misadventures in getting the right shot.

An amusing part of the diary is his running account of the food situation. Sometimes he had to resort to such flat fare as canned frankfurters and beans, but often he concocted fancy dishes by combining the local fare, especially seafood, with the Western food he had brought along.

Full of flavor and color, this book is well illustrated with 17 photographs in color and 130 in black and white.

Everyone can wear these things. There are many people, however, who will make sacrifices for beauty."

Among the disadvantages of the jewelry clothing is their weight. The pearls Smith uses have an alabaster or plastic base, but they still make a six-foot scarf pretty weighty.

HOPE (ARK) STAR, Printed by Offset

for "a lowering of the curtain, I don't think so."

"I don't think the networks are going to knuckle in," he added.

Both spoke in answer to questions by members of the Hollywood Radio and Television Society who expressed apprehension over censorship threats.

"Eight to ten years ago there was an intoxicating excitement in television, with an occasional 'hell' and 'damn,'" said Harry Ackerman, vice president and executive producer of Screen Gems, Inc.

"Suddenly it's like Czechoslovakia. Everything's changed. Are the networks going to knuckle in to Pastore and institute a new dark age of censorship?"

Sen. John O. Pastore, D-R.I., who has conducted an investigation of TV program content, is an outspoken critic of violence on the home screen.

Dann commented, "Violence in our society is coming from social change. TV in effect is not responsible for it."

But, he added, "we're going to continue a de-emphasis on violence at all times."

William Sell, president of 20th Century-Fox Television, recalled that about a year ago Dann called a producers' meeting on employment of Negro actors and asked if Dann had a progress report.

"All anybody has to do is turn on a set and know there is a phenomenal, explosive use of Negro performers," said Dann. "The great challenge for the industry is to get people on the other side of the camera."

Children Visit Dairy Farm at Prescott

McNally Got Hit, Orioles Win Game

By MIKE BRYSON

Associated Press Sports Writer
You'll have to give Dave McNally credit for one thing—he'll do anything to shake off a losing streak. . . even get a hit. McNally, who had produced only six hits all season and an anemic .071 average going into the game, singled home the only run as Baltimore nipped the Washington Senators 1-0 Tuesday night.

He gave the left-hander his second straight victory—the first time since his 17-game two-season victory string was snapped Aug. 3 that he's managed to string together that many triumphs.

Meanwhile, Harmon Killebrew took another big step toward winning the American League home title away from Frank Howard and Reggie Jackson by walloping his 44th of the season—a three-run shot—in leading Minnesota past Oakland 11-3.

That increased the Twins' lead over the A's to 10 games in the AL West and cut Minnesota's magic number for clinching the crown to just six.

In other games, Cleveland whipped Boston 5-2, Kansas City nipped Seattle 2-1, the New York Yankees topped Detroit 7-6 in 13 innings and the Chicago White Sox won a doubleheader from California, 7-4 and 3-2.

In the National League, Chicago shaded Montreal 5-4, Pittsburgh whipped Philadelphia 9-5, San Francisco blanked Atlanta 2-0, San Diego whipped Houston 6-1, and Los Angeles swept a doubleheader with Cincinnati, winning the first game 2-1 and taking the nightcap 3-2 in 12 innings. The New York Mets game at St. Louis was rained out.

McNally, who won his first 15 games this season, boosted his record to 19-6, although he needed Ed Watt to get the last Senators out.

His clincher was a bloop single to center in the sixth, scoring Merv Rettenmund, who had singled. McNally also sent Howard to the fence in left for his liner with the bases loaded and two out in the second, and led off the fifth with a double although he didn't score.

Killebrew, who was 6-for-6 with four homers and 12 RBI in the three games with the A's before his sixth inning strikeout, lofted his three-run homer into the left field pavilion in the first inning.

It raised his major league-leading RBI total to 134 and put the stocky slugger just two away from the AL homer leading totals of Oakland's Jackson and Howard.

John Roseboro, with his third homer, and Leo Cardenas, No. 10, came up with consecutive solo homers in the fourth to add

Crawford and Barker Enter the Finals

BELLA VISTA, Ark. (AP)—Richard Crawford and Pete Barker enter today's final round of the Arkansas PGA Golf Tournament tied for the lead at 72.

Crawford, a touring pro who plays out of Bella Vista, rallied for a two-under-par 34 on the back nine of the Bella Vista course after shooting the front nine in 38. Barker, the club in the Western Hills Country Club in Little Rock, had even par nines of 36-36.

The Twins then put it out of doubt with six runs in the fifth, when Rod Carew drove in two runs with a triple, Cesar Tovar two with a single and winner Jim Perry, 19-6, and Cardenas one each with singles.

Despite the sweep of the series with their only contender, Twins Manager Billy Martin refused to talk about a title yet.

"After six more wins or when we win this thing, we'll start thinking about Baltimore," said the freshman skipper.

Wally Bunker checked Seattle on four hits and drove in the winning run with a double in the eighth in lifting his record to 11-10—making him the Royals' winningest hurler.

Ken Harrelson's three-run homer, his 29th, in the eighth snapped a 2-2 tie and gave Cleveland its victory over the Red Sox. Jose Cardenal, No. 10, also homered for the Indians, while Rico Petrocelli hit his 39th for Boston.

Bobby Cox' sacrifice fly in the 13th inning produced the Yankees' winning run after Jerry Kenney opened the inning with a single and moved to third on Thurman Munson's single. Tom Shopay was purposely walked, loading the bases before Horace Clarke's flyout set the stage for Cox' winner.

The Tigers had tied it with three runs in the ninth, including two on Jim Northrup's homer. Clarke homered for the Yankees.

Catcher Duane Josephson, in the starting lineup for the first time since June 21, hit the first pitch tossed to him and also scored a pair of runs in leading the White Sox to victory in the nightcap. Rookie right-hander Bart Johnson earned his first major league triumph in the opener.

Marichal Hurls Giants Into First

By HAL BOCK

Associated Press Sports Writer
Bacon and eggs . . . ham and swiss . . . lettuce and tomatoes. None of them together as well as Juan Marichal and Candlestick Park.

Marichal, the high-kicking right-hander, pitched the San Francisco Giants into first place in the National League's hectic West Division race Tuesday night, beating Atlanta 2-0 on a four-hitter.

It was routine, almost automatic for Marichal, who is virtually unbeatable in Candlestick Park. The victory gave him a 13-1 record at home this season. He is 19-10 overall, meaning away from home, Juan's mark is a somewhat mediocre 6-9.

Elsewhere in the National League Tuesday, Chicago tripped Montreal 5-4, San Diego drubbed Houston 8-1, Pittsburgh downed Philadelphia 9-5 and Los Angeles swept a doubleheader from Cincinnati, winning the opener 2-1 and taking the nightcap 3-2 in 12 innings. New York's game at St. Louis was postponed by rain.

In the American League, New York nipped Detroit 7-6 in 13 innings, Kansas City trimmed Seattle 2-1, Minnesota blasted Oakland 11-3, Cleveland clipped Boston 5-2, Baltimore blanked Washington 1-0 and Chicago took a doubleheader from California 7-4 and 3-2.

The shutout was the eighth this season for Marichal, tops in the National League, and his sixth at Candlestick. He has allowed just one run in his last 45 innings pitched at home.

Hot-hitting Willie Mays drilled three hits and doubled home one of the two San Francisco runs. The other came on consecutive second inning singles by Ken Henderson, Jack Hatt and Hal Lanier.

It was the eighth consecutive complete game for Marichal and his 25th route-going effort in the last 33 starts.

The victory moved the Giants back into first place and completed a four-day move from fourth place to first in the West. LA's sweep moved the Dodgers into second place, one-half game behind the Giants and one percentage point ahead of the Braves.

Wes Parker drove in all three Dodger runs in the nightcap victory including the winner on a 12th inning single after Ted Sizemore had doubled and reached third on a fielder's choice.

The Dodgers rallied for two runs in the ninth inning to take the opener. The first run scored on a bases-loaded walk to Willie Crawford and the second on Johnny Bench's throwing error as the Cincinnati catcher attempted an inning-ending double play. Bench's double had driven in the games first run with an eighth inning double.

San Diego dealt another jolt to Houston's waning hopes, tagging the Astros with their sixth consecutive loss. Tommie Sisk coasted on a seven-hitter with Nat e Colbert and rookie Ron Slocum slamming home runs.

The loss left the fifth place Astros six games behind the Giants with just 16 games remaining.

Chicago used home runs by rookie Oscar Gamble and veteran Billy Williams to beat Montreal. The victory combined with the Mets' routout at St. Louis, moved the Cubs back to within four games of New York. The Mets' magic number remained at 11.

Pittsburgh used a 13-hit attack including homers by Jose Pagan and Al Oliver to whip Philadelphia. Matty Alou tagged three hits and Bob Moose, 11-3, struck out 13 Phillies for the victory.

Johnny Callison homered for the Phillies.

Little Brown Jug Classic Is All Set

DELAWARE, Ohio (AP) — Sixteen 3-year-olds will be on deck Thursday for the richest running ever of the Little Brown Jug trotting classic.

The race, with a purse of $109,731, will culminate the Grand Circuit program at the Delaware County Fairgrounds.

The entry of more than 14 horses in the race made mandatory a divisional breakdown with eight running in each bracket.

Two prime favorites—Laverne Hanover and Kat Byrd—landed in the second division. The top pick in the first division is Stanley Dancer's Bye Bye Sam.

Thinks Porks Will Have No Trouble

By HERSCHEL NISSENSON

Associated Press Sports Writer
The chase is on.

But, as college football's 101st season gets into full swing this weekend, the race will not be to the swiftest—for one Saturday, at least.

That's because Ohio State's talent-rich Buckeyes, fresh from a perfect 1968 campaign and a convincing triumph over Southern California and O.J. Simpson in the Rose Bowl, doesn't open its season until Sept. 27.

Woody Hayes' crew, national champions in The Associated Press' final 1968 poll, were runaway leaders in this year's pre-season balloting. But there's nothing they can do this weekend except sit back and watch the challengers do their stuff. The Buckeyes will still be No. 1 when Monday rolls around.

How's this for the first pick of the season—Virginia Tech over 13th-ranked Alabama. Tech Coach Jerry Clairborne, a former assistant at Alabama under Bear Bryant, has two dozen lettermen back from a team that came within 14-7 of the Crimson Tide last year on the road.

Except for the secondary, the Gobbles have no apparent weakness and Mike Widger is an All-American linebacker.

The No. 2 and 3 teams in the rankings—Arkansas and Penn State—should have no trouble with Oklahoma State and Navy, respectively. Junior quarterback whiz Bill Montgomery leads Arkansas against an Oklahoma State team which debuts under Coach Floyd Cass, who may want to take the pipe when the Razorbacks get through.

Penn State is shooting for its third consecutive Eastern title and, as usual, Coach Joe Paterno has the guns. They include halfback Charlie Pittman, line-backer Dennis Onkotz and defensive tackles Mike Reid and Steve Smear.

TEXAS over CALIFORNIA—California is an unknown quantity; Texas isn't. The fourth-ranked Longhorns have the passing in James Street, the running in Soeve Worster and Ted Koy and the defense in tackle Leo Brooks.

SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA over NEBRASKA—The Trojans, ranked fifth, have lost O. J. Simpson but will unveil Clarence Davis, who surpassed Simpson's junior college figures.

OKLAHOMA over WISCONSIN John Cotta still is looking for his first coaching victory, but this won't be it, despite the debut of breakout halfback Greg "Grape Juice" Johnson. Oklahoma's Steve Owens is a Heisman Trophy candidate.

HOUSTON over FLORIDA—The Cougars have a superb duo in quarterback Biley and split end Elmo Wright.

GEORGIA over TULANE—Quarterback Wayne Francigues came within 100 yards of setting a Tulane offense record last year but Georgia quarterback Mike Cavan has too many helpers.

MISSISSIPPI over MEMPHIS STATE—How strong is Ole Miss? Memphis State has 33 lettermen from last year's Missouri Valley champs—and isn't favored. Junior QB Archie Manning leads the Rebels.

MISSOURI over AIR FORCE—This one's no cinch, though. The Air Force held off the air attack of Southern Methodist's Chuck Hixson in the opener, but Missouri came of age with a 35-10 rout of Alabama in the Gator Bowl.

NOTRE DAME over NORTHWESTERN—"The most difficult problem about coaching at Notre Dame is losing early," says Ara Parseghian, noting that ND, an independent which doesn't go to bowls, has only the national championship to shoot for. The Irish may lose before too long, but not this year—and not to Northwestern.

EAST—Syracuse over Iowa State; Army over New Mexico; Xavier, Ohio over Buffalo; The Citadel over Lehigh; Colgate over Boston U.; Rutgers over Lafayette.

SOUTH—Indiana over Kentucky; Tennessee over Chattanooga; Auburn over Wake Forest; Florida State over Wichita State; Louisiana State over Texas A&M; North Carolina State over North Carolina; Richmond over Mississippi State; South Carolina over Duke; Southern Methodist over Georgia Tech; West Virginia over Maryland; Clemson over Virginia; Davidson over Gulfport; East Carolina over East Tennessee; Morehead State over Marshall; Southern Mississippi over Southwest Louisiana.

MIDWEST—Michigan State over Washington; Colorado over Tulsa; Ohio U. over Kent State; Michigan over Vanderbilt; Iowa over Oregon State; Bowling Green over Utah State; Cincinnati over Wm. & Mary; Washington State over Illinois; Southern Illinois over Louisville; Miami, Ohio over Dayton; Toledo over Villanova.

SOUTHWEST—Purdue over Texas Christian; New Mexico State over Howard Payne; North Texas State over Southwestern Louisiana; Rice over VMI; West Texas State over Northern Arizona.

FAR WEST—Stanford over San Jose State; UCLA over Pitt; Arizona State over Minnesota; Wyoming over Arizona; Colorado State U. over Brigham Young; Oregon over Utah; Pacific over Western Michigan.

Trout grow large in New York State. The Conservation Department reports these as the largest ever authenticated for rod and reel angling in the State: Brook trout — 8 lbs. 8 oz.; Brown trout — 21 lbs. 5 oz.; Rainbow trout — 21 lbs.; Lake trout — 31 lbs.

Broyles Knows Little About Okla. State

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. (AP)

—Frank Broyles continued Tuesday to bemoan the fact that his Razorbacks will not know what to expect when they open their season Saturday against Oklahoma State at Little Rock.

The Cowboys have a new coach, Floyd Cass.

"We've looked at every kind of offensive formation and every defensive set that Oklahoma State can possibly use," Broyles said after Tuesday's 90-minute practice.

Broyles complimented the five Arkansas running backs—Bruce Maxwell, Russ Garber, Bill Burnett, Mike Hendren and Russell Cody—saying "all the backs hit their holes well."

The Razorbacks are scheduled to work out today and Thursday in sweat clothes.

Broyles also said that instead of flying to Hot Springs Friday, which is the usual procedure before a game at Little Rock, that the team would take buses to Conway.

Little Brown Jug Classic Is All Set

DELAWARE, Ohio (AP) — Sixteen 3-year-olds will be on deck Thursday for the richest running ever of the Little Brown Jug trotting classic.

The race, with a purse of $109,731, will culminate the Grand Circuit program at the Delaware County Fairgrounds.

The entry of more than 14 horses in the race made mandatory a divisional breakdown with eight running in each bracket.

Two prime favorites—Laverne Hanover and Kat Byrd—landed in the second division. The top pick in the first division is Stanley Dancer's Bye Bye Sam.

Porkers Have Two 'I's' in 1969 Season

By HARRY KING
Associated Press Writer
LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Al-most before Arkansas had finished polishing off Georgia Jan. 1 in the Sugar Bowl, Razorback fans were talking about the 1969 season in excited tones.

The excitement would grow as they ticked off the names of returning starters.

However, two of those returning starters—tailback Bill Burnett and linebacker Cliff Powell—may not be in the lineup when the Razorbacks open their 1969 season Saturday at Little Rock against Oklahoma State.

"We have our fingers crossed," Coach Frank Broyles said Tuesday. "If the game had been today, Burnett would have played but Powell is very doubtful."

Burnett, a junior, has been nagged by a strained hamstring muscle. Powell has been nursing a sore toe.

"We need for Burnett to play," said Broyles. "Anybody who carries 200 times, loses only one fumble and score 17 touchdowns as a sophomore—you need him around."

"He is an outstanding player," Broyles said. "He does the right thing at the right time every time."

Broyles says Powell is an "outstanding football player, a leader in every way."

"He has 4.7 speed in the 40 which is darn good for a linebacker," says Broyles. "All he does is go to the football."

If Burnett is unable to play, Russell Cody, a two-year letterman, will probably get the call. Robert Lewis, a sophomore, will probably play in Powell's place.

Here is the way Broyles assesses the remainder of the probably starting lineup:

TIGHT END—Pat Morrison: "He will be the equivalent of the best tight end as a blocker we've ever had. He has the quickest feet on the line of scrimmage. He's a lot bigger than Jerry Lamb, but he has the quick feet of Lamb."

RIGHT TACKLE—Bob Stan-kovich: "He's one of our most improved players. He didn't start the first game last year and he's improved because of hard work."

RIGHT GUARD—Ronnie Hammers: "He's probably our best pass protector."

CENTER—Rodney Brand: "He can play on your first team. He's the catch-all man on our pass protection. Let me quote the pros to you, 'He's extremely quick.'"

LEFT GUARD—Jerry Doss-ey: "He's every bit as good as (All-American Jim) Barnes, he's strong and he's fast enough to pull and lead our sweeps."

LEFT TACKLE—Mike Kel-son: "He's a fireball. What he might lack in other things he makes up for in competitiveness."

SPLIT END—Chuck Dicus: "Dicus is a perfectionist. Every pass that is thrown to him you would think it is the last play of the Sugar Bowl and we needed it to win. He compares to any plazer we've ever had at work-ing at his trade."

FLANKER—John Rees: "He's the fastest man we've got. He doesn't have the experience of Dicus, but he has potential."

FULLBACK—Bruce Max-well: "He's a coach's football player. He does exactly what you ask him to do. He doesn't make mistakes. He's also quick-er than he was last year."

QUARTERBACK—Bill Mont-gomery: "I don't believe there has been a true sophomore do what Montgomery did last year with the passing the option. It's a rarity when you find a drop-back quarterback who can run and make the option go. He has the intangibles that you are look-ing for. After looking at all the films, we felt like Montgomery played like a sophomore five minutes in two different games."

RIGHT END—Gordon Mc-Nulty: "He waited two years to play last year and at the end of the year he was quite a football player."

TACKLES—Dick Bumpas and Rick Kersey: "Bumpas and Ker-sey are good football players, quick. They're not big but they make up for it. They're really underrated football players. We made up a perfect play reel and Kersey was the star. He plays every technique perfect-ly."

LEFT LINEBACKER—Lynn Garner: "He's our big play line-backer. This is a demanding position, because he switches from side to side in our vari-ous defenses, sometimes as an end, sometimes as a lineback-er."

RIGHT LINEBACKER—Mike Boschetti: "Boschetti played

Yerger Junior Bobkittens Play DeQueen

By RALPH ROUNTON
Star SportsWriter

Seeking to lengthen their prosper-ity to a 2-0 record, the Yer-ger Junior High Bobkittens travel to DeQueen tomorrow night to face the Leopard Cubs in a 7:30 p.m. kickoff.

Last Thursday, Coach Gaylord Solomon's Kittens surprised everybody by manhandling the Prescott Curley Cubs 25-0, which had been figured as a close match. That easy one, though, gave the Hope players a good attitude for the next few weeks of work-outs.

In DeQueen, the Kittens could be facing the weakest opponent on their schedule. The Cubs lost 6-0 decision to Mena last week in their opener, making only a couple of first downs in the ef-fort.

However, the Cubs should present a formidable defense to the Yerger offensive team which is unproven except for the Pres-cott game, when turnovers kept the Bobkittens in excellent field position.

Quarterback Buddy Ingram should be able to pass effective-ly, and his favorite targets in-clude Ricky Hart and end Jackie Barker. David Johnson, and 8th grader, made a fine debut by gaining 90 yards rushing last week, and fellow running back David Huddleston ran well and scored a touchdown.

Inexperience is a big factor in the Bobkitten roster, but most of the team saw action against Prescott and got the feeling of playing before the crowd. Con-fidence is being sewed into the squad's overall attitude, too, and a good victory at DeQueen could get Yerger off the blocks in good position for another big year.

For the Bobcats, this has been a hard week for mental prepara-tions, regarding DeQueen's unorthodox "27" defense. Blocking rules have undergone changes on many plays offensively for the Cats, and it has required much practice and drill.

Attitude is important this week, as Coach Ronnie Higgins well knows. This is his third autumn here, and he has seen Hope squads show their stuff one week, only to fall by the wayside on the next Friday night.

DeQueen, with their lack of quantity, looks unimpressive on paper but is just the type of football team that gives people about a third of the time last fall and he's made a lot of progress."

MONSTER MAN—Bobby Field: "He does it all like you ask him to do. He's one of those who does everything right. He surprised us all last year."

RIGHT HALFBACK—Jerry Moore: "He's one of the real determined football players on the squad. He's 6-foot-3, weighs 205, runs 4.6 in the 40 and inter-cepted seven passes last year. And, he's had a real outstanding fall practice."

LEFT HALFBACK—Terry Stewart: "We moved him from safety because we needed his speed to cover the fast receiv-ers."

SAFETY—Dennis Berner and Gus Rusher: "Last spring it looked like Rusher was going to beat Dennis out, but Berner has had a real good fall and I don't know who the safety will be."

PUNTER—Gary Stockdell: "He should be improved with a year's experience."

PLACEMENT KICKER—Bill McClard: "He has a world of ability. He kicked field goals in high school of 56, 53 and 51 yards. He has the range of any-body you want. The best he's done is kick 10 straight from 52 yards."

Broyles will know even more about 4:30 p.m. Saturday.

fits. They did it last week at Broken Bow against one of the best teams in all Oklahoma, and that could be ample reason for at least one source to give the Leopards the nod over Hope this Friday.

Tomorrow this column will fully evaluate DeQueen, finally deciding whether or not they will be able to match forces even-ly with the Bobcats beginning at 7:30 p.m. Friday night, which they will.

Tuesday's Stars

BATTING—Harmon Kill-e-brew, Twins, slammed a three-run homer, his 44th of the season, and raised his major league-leading RBI total to 134 in powering Minnesota past Oakland 11-3.

PITCHING—Juan Marichal, Giants, pitched a four-hitter for his 19th victory, beating Atlanta 2-0 and moving San Francisco into first place in the National League's West Division.

Only Single Dist. Game This Week

The only conference action in Div. 4 AA this week involves the class between two Panther teams in a 4AA East struggle. The Magnolia Panthers, winner of 17 straight games and defending district champion, travels to Camden to meet an early season surprise team.

Both Magnolia and Camden have posted two victories in this early season. Magnolia opened with a win over Warren and defeated Haynesville, La., 20-0 this past week. Camden opened with a win over Lincoln (Camden) and defeated Fairview 27-7 this past week.

The early season showdown is expected to be largely a bat-tle of "defenses". Both teams have looked stronger on defense than offense, but yet both teams have had adequate offenses.

Camden has scored 67 points and allowed 7 while Magnolia has scored 47 points and allowed 0.

In other results last week: Crossett 42 Lincoln 0; Smack-over 19 Norphlet 0; Hope 27 Prescott 0; Arkadelphia 52 PB Coleman 6; Warren 7 Monticel-lo 10; Malvern 8 Pine Bluff 13.

Other game action this week for 4 AA teams will send Smackover to Fairview on Thursday night; Hope at DeQueen; Ark-adelphia at Nashville; Malvern at Russellville; Lincoln at Eu-dora Johns; Warren host to Du-mas; and Crossett host to Mon-ticello all on Friday night.

Arkadelphia's Luther Guinn has taken over the individual scoring leadership with four touchdowns and a two point conversion in their opening game.

In other statistical depart-ments Magnolia leads in first downs with 32; Lincoln has thrown the most passes with 47; Camden has completed the most passes 13 out of 30; Smackover has intercepted the most passes with 4; Smackover has the most yards rushing 499 and has held two opponents to minus 4. Cam-den has the most yards passing 232 yards. Crossett, Magnolia, and Smackover have not been scored upon.

HOPE NEWSPAPER HISTORY:
The 1929 consolidation joined the two principal newspaper lines dating back to within five years of Hope's incorporation in 1875.

1899—Star of Hope founded as a weekly by Claude Mc-Corkle; converted to an evening daily by his son, Ed. McCorkle, publishing until the 1929 consolidation.

The opposition line:
1880—Hope News founded by Lowry Brothers.

1883—Sold to Withers & Johnson, name changed to Hope Telegraph.

1883—Later in same year resold to Claude McCorkle and renamed Hope Mercury.

1884—Sold to James H. Betts, who named it Hope Gazette, under which name it was published continuously until 1922, published by Betts, J.L. Tullis, and Col. W.W.
Folsom the last-named dying in 1916.

1916—Purkins & Gates bought the weekly Gazette and made it a companion paper to their new daily, Arkansas Evening Herald
—but both papers suspended in 1922.

1926—Plant was revived by Curtis Cannon as the weekly
Hempstead County Review.

1927—Cannon sold plant to D.A. Gean, who established the morning Hope Daily Press.

1929—C.E. Palmer and A.H.

DREAMS LED TO MONEY
KOKSTAD, South Africa (AP)
Dreams led a detective to the exact spot where a murdered woman storekeeper had hidden Rands 14,937 ($19,902), he told a local judge. Detective-sergeant Johannes van der Bank, 27, testifying at the trial of an African accused of hacking 56-year-old
Mrs. Rachel Feder to death at her store, said he found the money in a special panel under the counter of the shop after having "various dreams about where the money was hidden."

There are differences between the expert and the average player. One is that the expert has put in many hours studying the game so he will bid better. Another is that the average player is apt to be too conservative at times and too optimistic at others. Experts go wrong here also, but the expert is either an incurable optimist or an incurable pessimist.
He doesn't overbid one hand and underbid the next.

The most important single difference is that the expert makes the best percentage play on all occasions. The ordinary player doesn't worry about possible bad breaks and blames it on bad luck when things go wrong.

Today's hand is an example of how an expert takes precautions. South is very happy with his four-heart contract. West opens the king of spades and continues with the ace and seven. South ruffs the third spade and is ready to attack trumps.

The ordinary player will just lead one of his honors.
East will take his singleton ace and undoubtedly will lead a fourth round of spades.

South will have to ruff high and this will establish the nine of trumps as the setting trick.

South has been unlucky.
There is no reason for the singleton ace of trumps to be in the East hand but the expert would not have been unlucky.

He would have played a diamond to the ace after ruffing the heart and then led a trump from dummy.
Most of the time he would make the same 10 tricks
anyone else would. This time he also makes 10, whereas the other player has made only nine.

QUICK QUIZ

Q—On how many occasions did three U.S. presidents serve in the same year?
A—In 1841, Martin Van Buren, William Henry Harrison and John Tyler all served as president. In 1881, for the second time in American history, there were three presidents in one year—Rutherford B. Hayes, James A. Garfield and Chester A. Arthur.
Q—Are there any original manuscripts of the books of the New Testament, as they were written by the Apostles, in existence?
A—No, they have all been lost. Only copies remain and none of them dates from the time when the Apostles were still living.

Buick GS For 1970

Functional hood scoops that carry cool outside air directly into the carburetor and a red striped rocker panel molding are the identifying marks of Buick's all new GS models for 1970. The GS 455 shown here is powered by Buick's new 455 cubic inch engine. This model also is available with a Stage 1 performance option that includes a special camshaft, positive traction rear axle, high speed valve train and dual exhausts. The GS 455 is available in two models, a two-door hardtop and a convertible.

Oiler Coach Thinks O.J. Big Threat

By SHEILA MORAN
Associated Press Sports Writer

Coach Wally Lemm of the Houston Oilers thinks O. J. Simpson is "possibly a greater threat as a receiver than as a runner."

"He's one hell of a threat," Lemm said Tuesday after viewing a film of Simpson's performance with the Buffalo Bills against the New York Jets last Sunday, his first regular season pro game.

Lemm said the fabled running back from Southern Cal should make the Oilers' clash with Buffalo a tough game, even though he believes he has the best potential Oiler team since he returned as head coach in 1966.

"Simpson wasn't with the Bills when we beat them 24-7 in August so we know they are improved," Lemm said.

Simpson was limited to 35 yards in 10 carries, including a eight-yard run for his first pro touchdown. But he showed his breakaway ability on two pass receptions for a 64-yard gain and on three kickoff returns for another 68 yards.

Simpson's heroics were not enough, however, as the Bills lost to the world champion Jets, 33-19.

Houston dropped the opener against Oakland 21-17 but Lemm said "Oakland had two weeks to prepare for us and came out with some defense patterns we hadn't seen before. We didn't solve our adjustments entirely until we got to the blackboard at halftime."

Lemm said his only line-up change at Buffalo will find eight-year veteran Sonny Bishop at right guard in place of Jim Lemolne, a three-year man, "because we'll need Sonny's greater experience and ability to adjust to situations."

In other developments, National Football League clubs revealed final, no-recall cuts made to reach Monday's 40-man limit.

Minnesota said it had claimed aging quarterback Zeke Bratkowski on waivers from Green Bay where he's serving as an assistant coach. But it's been reported Bratkowski will retire rather than play for the Vikings, and remain on the Green Bay staff.

Washington sprung a mild surprise by cutting veteran running back A. D. Whitfield, who gained 72 yards on 17 carries in preseason games. Coach Vince Lombardi also dropped receiver Sonny Randle.

Man Charged for Possessing Marijuana

RUSSELLVILLE, Ark. (AP) — A Pope County man was charged with possession of marijuana Tuesday after authorities said they found 25 pounds of the narcotic at a residence between Dover and Scottsville on Arkansas 27.

Sheriff Otto Brinkman of Pope County said Alex Goates, about 60, had also been charged with selling alcoholic beverages in a dry county.

Brinkman said authorities went to the residence to investigate reports that alcoholic beverages were being sold and found a "whole bedroom full of marijuana stalks." He said officers also confiscated 400 cans of beer.

Brinkman said one five-pound tin can was packed with plastic bags of marijuana and that another can was almost full. He also said there was a washtub half full of the narcotic.

HELEN HELP US!

by Helen Bottel

"WHAT NEIGHBORS THINK" IS NOT IMPORTANT

Dear Helen: Maybe our family acts silly, but we enjoy each other. My husband wrestles with the kids, we play exuberant games. There's always some sort of happy commotion at our house, and sometimes it overflows to the lawn where we have water fights and everyone ends up getting soaked.

The kids think all this is great, and so do we. But here is the problem: I've been noticing lately a few funny looks from neighbors and also a few roundabout remarks such as "What do you do for an encore?"

Honest, Helen, we aren't showing off. We just have fun being nutty. My husband tells me I shouldn't worry about what a few uptight neighbors think, but — SHOULD WE OR SHOULDN'T WE CHANGE?

Dear SWOSWC: You should listen to your husband! — H.

Dear Helen: Could you give us the address of YOUTH LIFE LINE, so that we may get more detailed information on how to start a teen telephone service in our town? We know that young people need a place where they can pour out their problems anonymously, and our local woman's club would like to start such a telephone listening-counseling center. — MRS. J. P.

Dear Mrs. P: The address is, YOUTH LIFE LINE, CARE OF TOWN AND COUNTRY JUNIOR WOMEN'S CLUB, P.O. Box 15843, Sacramento, California, 95815. Please send a stamped self-addressed envelope with your query.

Because so many clubs and individuals have asked for guide-

Good luck! — H.

Dear Helen: Our last chick has flown, but we aren't lonely! How could we be with all the relatives who descend on us each vacation time? They now give as their reason, "You must really be at loose ends, rattling around in that house all alone." So of course they come in hoards to "cheer us up." (When our children were still home, they had other excuses, like it's so lovely for our kids to get together.)

Take last night: We expected dinner for two, and we ended up feeding 12! Which meant we had to run out and buy steaks—and your know what THAT does to a limited budget! Oh yes, they all drink, but no one thinks to bring a bottle.

Those who couldn't crowd in to our guest room and the living room couch slept on the lawn. Anything to avoid motel bills. They make our house their headquarters, then take off to visit friends, but always return at meal time.

This is the sixth group of happy vacationers we've had in two months, and I'm sick of it. Yet I can't be rude to relatives. How do I get it across that I no longer want to provide free lodgings, food, laundry and maid service, especially since we go on trips we never take advantage like this? — BROKE BACK AND BUDGET

Dear BB and B: So long as you're an easy mark, you'll get hit up for free services. When relatives turn up unexpectedly suggest they go out for dinner, and recommend a good motel. Discourage the "regulars" by telling them your doctor "insists" you take it easier, and that means "no more visitors for a while."

Then, take a trip and relax. You've earned your rest. — H.

AEC Pleased With Blast in Nevada

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP) — The Atomic Energy Commission, pleased with the success of a near-megaton underground blast, pushed plans today for even more powerful weapons tests in Nevada and Alaska.

Robert Miller, the AEC's Nevada operations manager, termed "very successful" the detonation Tuesday on Pahute Mesa, 110 miles north of Las Vegas, of a nuclear device that shook several western states and made tall buildings sway as far away as Salt Lake City, 340 miles northeast.

The $3 million test, which Miller said was "very important to national security," had an explosive yield officially described as somewhat less than a megaton. A megaton is the equivalent of a million tons of TNT.

Unofficial sources estimated the force at about 800,000 tons and linked the blast with development of a warhead for an anti-missile system.

An AEC spokesman said a one-megaton shot is scheduled at Amchitka, in the Aleutian Islands off Alaska, next month. If that area proves safe, he said, tests of several megatons will be conducted there in the future.

Hurricane Maintaining Its Course

MIAMI (AP) — Hurricane Holly maintained a northwest course across the Atlantic today, more than 900 miles east of Puerto Rico. Weather Bureau scientists kept watch for a possible attempt to curb its fury.

Reports from Air Force reconnaissance aircraft showed Holly's top winds were 75 miles an hour—minimal strength for a hurricane.

The National Hurricane Center said little change in intensity was expected today. Holly was forecast to continue moving toward the northwest at about 10 m.p.h.

An attempt to bombard the hurricane with silver iodide crystals was tentatively scheduled for Thursday, depending on the storm's location at that time.

Irish Warfare Spreads to Sports Arena

By COLIN FROST

Associated Press Writer
BELFAST, Northern Ireland (AP) — Northern Ireland's religious and political warfare spread to the sports arena today. Police put a visiting Italian soccer team under guard after it received a threat that it "will never reach home."

The threat was in a letter sent to a newspaper and signed by a person who identified himself as a captain in the outlawed Protestant "Ulster Volunteer Force."

It was leveled against Roma, a team scheduled to play a winners' cup match this afternoon and return to Italy Thursday.

"Because the Italian press and TV have attacked British Ulster and England," the letter said, "we must and shall take punitive action against them."

A police spokesman said the threat has been taken seriously. "The team will have a police guard before, during and after the match—until they leave the country," he said.

A downpour of rain and a new wait-and-see policy by British troops was delaying the removal of Belfast's street barricades, which were thrown up by Roman Catholics to keep Protestants out of their neighborhoods following last month's riots.

Residents cooperated with soldiers taking down barricades for part of the day Tuesday, but some of the barriers were rebuilt almost immediately. By the end of the day only seven had been dismantled, and several hundred remained in various parts of the city.

The army reached an agreement Tuesday night with the Citizens' Defense Committee, which claims to speak for 75,000 Catholics, on a plan for voluntary, phased removal of the barricades by noon Friday.

Buick's New Luxury Estate Wagon

For the first time in several years, Buick is offering a luxury Estate Wagon in its upper series. Mounted on a 124-inch wheelbase and powered by a 455 cubic inch V-8 engine, this model contains many of the ride and handling features of Buick's Electra models, yet has been engineered for increased load capacity and greater passenger comfort. The wood grain applique and vinyl top are optional equipment.

Prescribes Less Alcohol at Lunch

BATON ROUGE, La. (AP) — Lt. Gov. C.C. Aycock prescribed less alcohol at lunch for Louisiana legislators.

Testifying Tuesday at a meeting on streamlining the legislative process, Aycock said the lawmakers should adopt regular hours, perhaps convening at 9 a.m., then going to lunch "without any martinis" and returning for committee meetings.

Big Parade to Feature Dist. Show

The 25th Annual Third District Livestock Show will get under way next Monday September 22nd at 4 p.m. with a big parade in downtown Hope.

Bands from throughout the area have been invited to participate in the parade and a number of very attractive floats are expected to be included in the parade.

More than $300.00 in cash prizes will be awarded to participants in the civic, school, and youth float divisions and also for the pets and decorated bicycle divisions. Those wishing to enter floats or bicycles and pets should contact the Chamber of Commerce this week and let your wishes be known.

Beginning Monday night, September 22nd a full week of activities will get under way with a talent contest on Monday, Queen's contest on Tuesday evening, the annual Quarter Horse show on Wednesday and Rodeo activities will get started on Thursday and continue through Saturday night. Livestock show officials predict that this will be one of the best shows in years and they predict a record attendance.

TEL AVIV (AP) — Israeli and Egyptian artillery battled intermittently across the Suez Canal today, and one Israeli soldier was wounded, the Israeli army announced.

Egyptian antitank and artillery fire hit an Israeli patrol north of the Bitter Lakes, a spokesman said, and a soldier was wounded in this exchange.

An earlier communiqué said an Israeli soldier was killed and another injured in artillery and small arms duels Tuesday across the canal.

The announcement said there was repeated firing along the canal, and the casualties occurred south of the Bitter Lakes.

Forrest City White Girls Picket, Claim Negro Rape Threats

FORREST CITY, Ark. (AP) — The Forrest City School Board agreed Tuesday night to allow about 30 white students who staged a walkout at a junior high school Tuesday to return without penalty if they return by Friday.

If the students are not back in class by Friday, the board decided, they will be suspended.

The students walked out of the predominantly white Sam Smith Junior High School, declaring that they had been threatened and intimidated by Negro students.

Several of the students, and a few parents, picketed the school later in the day. A school spokesman said about 15 persons, mostly students, resumed picketing at the school today.

Some of the pickets carried signs which said, "No More Threats About Rape," "Check The Negroes, Too," and "Give Us Our Civil Rights." The students said teachers either couldn't or wouldn't do anything about the situation.

Supt. William Irving, who called an emergency meeting of the board Tuesday night, did not attend the meeting. He was reported to be ill.

The students said there had been numerous incidents at the school since classes began Aug. 29. They also said that white students had been searched and that Negroes should also be searched.

There are about 600 students in Forrest City.

Welfare Reform Program Is Still Lodged

By G. C. THELEN Jr., Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — President Nixon's welfare reform proposals remain lodged at the White House in their 11th draft because of kinks in the family assistance program.

Congress probably will have to wait another two weeks before receiving a final detailed package of welfare legislation, government sources say.

The President said last month he wants to replace aid programs for dependent children with a sweeping family assistance program that would provide minimum aid of $1,600 a year to a needy family of four.

And for the first time, a working family of four with income less than $3,920 a year could receive a cash supplement under the proposal.

White House drafters say completion of the family assistance plan is being slowed by such questions as these:

—What amount of personal assets can a family retain and still be eligible for aid?

—How many times a year must a family report its income for recomputation of benefits?

—How long should a person have to wait for his first monthly check after making application?

—What value should be placed on the land of a farmer who has had several years of crop failure?

Nixon Hopes to Move Before Year's End, Bring Home 100,000

By FRED S. HOFFMAN, AP Military Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — President Nixon still hopes he may be able to move before the end of the year to boost U.S. troop withdrawals from Vietnam to about 100,000 men, administration sources indicate.

Even as Secretary of Defense Melvin R. Laird prepared for today's public detailing of Nixon's Tuesday order withdrawing at least another 35,000 troops from the war zone by Dec. 15, the sources said the manpower situation would be reviewed again, presumably before 1970.

Added to 25,000 brought out during the summer, the new Nixon decision will raise to 60,000 the number of American servicemen pulled back under the administration program to reduce the U.S. battle role and shift it gradually to the South Vietnamese.

Last June, Nixon told a news conference he hoped to do even better than former Secretary of Defense Clark M. Clifford's call for withdrawing 100,000 U.S. troops by the end of 1969.

Asked about this, White House

Laird Says Draft Calls to Be Cut

By FRED S. HOFFMAN, AP Military Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of Defense Melvin R. Laird indicated today draft calls for the months ahead will be reduced as a result of the new troop reduction in Vietnam and an overall 20,000 man cutback in U.S. armed strength.

"The Vietnamization program will have a very substantial effect on programmed draft calls for the months ahead," Laird told a news conference.

The defense secretary said he will inform the Selective Service System Friday of the planned changes and will urge Congress that same day to enact reform legislation designed to remove inequities in the draft.

Although Laird refused to say flatly there would be draft cuts, his words carried that clear intent. Sources hinted the October draft call of 29,000 probably will be reduced.

Administration sources indicated meanwhile President Nixon still hopes he may be able to move before the end of the year to boost U.S. troop withdrawals from Vietnam to about 100,000 men, administration sources indicate.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Senate critics of defense spending after losing all attempts to halt or cutback new weapons programs, have opened their final drive to amend the $20 billion military authorization bill.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Judge Clement F. Haynsworth's denial of any conflict of interests in a 1963 court decision seems to be drawing some support from the liberal-moderate bloc in the Senate Committee considering his appointment to the Supreme Court.

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Democratic National Committee's new policy council is finally ready for business and it may provide Hubert H. Humphrey with a platform from which to challenge President Nixon's performance.

Agnew Frowns on Busing Students

By HARRY NASH, Associated Press Writer
WILLIAMSBURG, Va. (AP) — Vice President Spiro T. Agnew has come out against busing of pupils to achieve "an integrated status," but southern governors couldn't tell whether he spoke for the Nixon administration or only himself.

"This administration favors integration but not mandatory, enforced, artificially contrived social acceptance," Agnew told the Southern Governors' Conference Tuesday night, departing from his prepared text.

Agnew's antibusing remarks were greeted with scattered applause by participants at the lavish and formal state dinner climaxing the governor's annual conference.

But Virginia Gov. Mills E. Godwin Jr. may have reflected sentiments of most southern chief executives when he said afterward: "I am still at a loss to understand what the administration's position is."

After Agnew said the administration favors integration, he then adopted the first person in his surprise departure from his text.

"I mean that on a subject as delicate as busing, for example," he said, "if you don't want artificially contrived integration

Accidents Take Toll on Allies

By GEORGE ESPER, Associated Press Writer
SAIGON (AP) — A unit of the 3rd Marine Division which is being pulled out of Vietnam under President Nixon's withdrawal of 35,000 U.S. troops, was attacked by a North Vietnamese force today and 15 Americans were wounded in the four-hour battle.

The enemy lost 23 killed, military spokesmen said.

Further details were not available immediately.

Nine Americans and seven Vietnamese were killed in war accidents in the past four days, the U.S. Command said. Another 17 Vietnamese and 10 Americans were wounded in the incidents.

Most of the American casualties occurred Saturday, U.S. headquarters said. Eight men from the 1st Infantry Division were killed and 10 wounded when an explosive charge they were placing near an artillery base blew up.

The accident occurred 33 miles northwest of Saigon and is being investigated.

A U.S. Marine was killed Tuesday six miles south of the demilitarized zone when a helicopter rotor blade hit him. The helicopter was lifting a Marine patrol out after a brief fight.

U.S. headquarters said four men and three women were killed, and 12 men and five women were wounded.

"The incident is being investigated," a communiqué said.

Battles in Middle East Continue

TEL AVIV (AP) — Israeli and Egyptian artillery battled intermittently across the Suez Canal today, and one Israeli soldier was wounded, the Israeli army announced.

Egyptian antitank and artillery fire hit an Israeli patrol north of the Bitter Lakes, a spokesman said, and a soldier was wounded in this exchange.

An earlier communiqué said an Israeli soldier was killed and another injured in artillery and small arms duels Tuesday across the canal.

The announcement said there was repeated firing along the canal, and the casualties occurred south of the Bitter Lakes.

Earlier the Israelis announced that their air force on Tuesday again attacked military posts along the western shore of the Gulf of Suez.

The Israelis have been pounding that area for the past week.

No Conflict of Interests, Judge Vows

By JOHN CHADWICK, Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — Judge Clement F. Haynsworth's denial of any conflict of interests in a 1963 court decision seems to be drawing some support from the liberal-moderate bloc on the Senate committee considering his appointment to the Supreme Court.

Haynsworth, who was called to testify on his nomination again today before the Judiciary Committee, said Tuesday his part ownership in a vending machine company doing business with a firm involved in the case six years ago had no bearing on his decision.

"I don't see any benefit that he got out of the decision in this case," Sen. Joseph D. Tydings, D-Md., told newsmen after asking Haynsworth a series of questions.

Similarly, Sens. Hiram L. Fong, R-Hawaii, and Marlow W. Cook, R-Ky., said in separate interviews they heard nothing to indicate Haynsworth should have disqualified himself from ruling in the case.

The views expressed by Tydings, Fong and Cook, after listening to the testimony, indicated Haynsworth's position was drawing support from the committee's liberal-moderate bloc.

All three had been silent on the nomination of Haynsworth, now chief judge of the 4th U.S. Court of Appeals.

Tydings, who also said it was unfair to call Haynsworth a segregationist as some civil rights leaders have charged, had joined earlier with Sen. Philip A. Hart, D-Mich., in requesting the judge disclose all his outside financial interests.

Haynsworth not only complied with this request but also submitted copies of all his income tax returns from 1957 to date.

Bruton Trial Scheduled for Nov. 18

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The trial of Jim Bruton, former superintendent of Tucker Prison Farm, is to get under way Nov. 18.

U. S. District Judge J. Smith Henley announced the trial date Tuesday, but said he did not know whether the trial would be held at Pine Bluff or Little Rock.

Bruton, who has been indicted on 18 charges of brutality in the punishment of inmates, has asked that the trial be held at Pine Bluff.

The indictments against Bruton allege that inmates were punished, either directly by Bruton or under his supervision.

Henley also announced that William C. Morgan of North Little Rock, a former trustee guard at Tucker Prison Farm who is charged with five counts of passing electrical currents through inmates, would be tried Sept. 29.

He said Ernest L. Fletcher of Jonesboro, a former Tucker warden who is charged with one count of assault on an inmate by whipping him with a strap, would be tried Oct. 6.

Herman H. Belk of near Little Rock, an assistant warden at the Pulaski County Penal Farm, and Gene Emmerling of Little Rock, a former assistant warden, are scheduled to be tried together Oct. 8. They are to be tried on charges arising from the death Aug. 2, 1968 of Curtis Lee Ingram Jr., 18, of Little Rock at the penal farm.

It was also announced that charges against Lawrence E. Hudson, night shift supervisor at Cummins Prison Farm, had been dismissed. He was one of three persons charged with firing shotguns at 100 inmates holding a sitdown strike at Cummins Oct. 14, 1968 but authorities said further investigation revealed that Hudson had shot "straight up in the air" and not at the inmates.

Communists Slam French Program

By STEPHENS BROENING

Associated Press Writer

PARIS (AP) — Big and thick like a heavyweight boxer, the leader of the Communist group in the French National Assembly leaped forward on the balls of feet, the heels of his hands on the rostrum.

His head thrust forward, Robert Ballanger said with obvious satisfaction to the hostile Gaullist majority on the violet velvet benches before him:

"The disastrous situation in which we now find ourselves, you say, is the result of international circumstances."

"You ask us for sacrifices." He raised his hands in mock surprise. "This is a far cry from the arrogant speeches to which we became accustomed during more than 10 years"—the past 10 years when Charles de Gaulle was France's president.

Ballanger cited Premier Jacques Chaban-Delmas' general policy statement made to the assembly earlier Tuesday, which called for a national effort to make devaluation of the franc work.

"It sounded like a funeral oration for your predecessors," said Ballanger, recalling that in 1956 De Gaulle had said, "There is no currency stronger than the franc."

"I won't press the point," said the Communist ironically. "It would be too cruel for you."

When he finished, the Gaullists and their allies—who hold more than three fourths of the assembly's 487 seats, hooted and banged the tops of their desks. The 33 other Communists applauded as Ballanger returned to his bench.

In the subsequent ballot on the premier's request for a vote of confidence, the government won an easy 369-85 victory. But the government's problem is not the National Assembly.

If Chaban-Delmas and his ministers are to restore economic health to France, they must convince the trade unions to moderate their demands and stop striking. Government economists maintain an atmosphere of labor calm is needed to avoid a cost-price push and to restore confidence.

They fear a chain reaction of wildcat strikes may be starting, more or less with the benediction of the Communist party and its trade union, the CGT.

Trainmen went on strike last Thursday. Paris urban transport workers have begun a series of work stoppages. Postal workers have served notice they will walk out early next month.

The ground crews of the internal airline, Air Inter, began a 24-hour strike at midnight.

Gaullist deputies acknowledge the paradox: They hold an unsalable parliamentary majority, but the Communists control the factories and the public services.

Ford Goes Up $108 on the New Models

By KIT KINCADE
Associated Press Writer
DETROIT (AP) — Ford Motor Co., the nation's No. 2 automaker, today announced its 1970 model cars would cost an average of $108 more than current models, an increase of 3.6 per cent.

Ford, shooting for a bigger share of the market now held by industry leader General Motors, came up with a price boost smaller than GM's $125 or 3.9 per cent increase.

The company also said it was holding the line on the price of its fast selling little Maverick, which goes for $1,995. Next to the 1970 Hornet being marketed by American Motors, the Maverick will be the lowest priced American-made auto, American Motors says its new Hornet will sell for $1,994. Trying to avoid being put at a competitive disadvantage by GM, Ford changed its mind on its warranty program after General Motors announced it was sticking with its five-year, 50,000-mile power train warranty.

Ford, which had announced in August it was trimming its warranty to one year with no limits on mileage or number of owners, now says it will offer a power train warranty of five years or 50,000 miles at an additional cost.

Ford sold 27.5 per cent of the American-made cars marketed between Jan. 1 and Sept. 60 while General Motors held more than half the market.

Like GM, Ford cited increased costs in labor, materials and taxes as the prime reasons for the price hikes.

Both Ford and GM said a number of previously optional items, such as fiberglass belted tires, would be standard equipment on 1970 models.

Cars shipped for sale in California will be equipped with a mandatory exhaust emission control system priced at $35, Ford said.

The $108 dollar price increase posted by Ford includes the federal excise tax. Ford said the average increase in the list price of its 1970 models would be $103 compared to $119 for GM.

The list price does not include any taxes or dealer handling or delivery charges.

The Ford 1970 prices range from the $1,995 Maverick to the $6,622 for the Continental Mark III, up $353 dollars over 1969.

Treated Sewage Water Doesn't Hurt Fish

By JOHN CROSLY
Associated Press Writer
MARTINEVILLE, Calif.

(AP) — A unique lake teeming with rainbow trout on the eastern slope of the Sierra near here is filled with a billion gallons of treated sewage water and authorities say it's pure enough to drink.

Called Indian Creek Reservoir, the man-made lake is fed by a 22-inch pipeline snaking over a 7,000 foot mountain pass from a sewage plant at South Lake Tahoe, 14 miles north.

"The plant is the only one of its kind in the world," says Bob Wakeman, a director of the South Tahoe Public Utility District, serving an area with about 15,000 residents. "The water it produces meets U.S. public health service drinking water standards."

The growth of resort and year-round communities at Tahoe has caused pollution, silt and algae to mar Lake Tahoe's natural beauty, Wakeman says. The $3-million plant and 14-mile pipeline were built to help reverse the trend.

After treatment with lime to remove solids, the sewage water is pumped through filtration beds, channeled through five 30-foot columns containing $150,000 worth of activated charcoal, then chlorinated. The lime and charcoal are later reclaimed.

The water arrives at Indian Creek Reservoir colorless, odorless, tasteless and stripped of harmful wastes.

"Everyone asks us why we don't pump the water back into Tahoe and save some money," says Wakeman. "The answer is we could and probably no one would know the difference, but the project is still experimental and its results must be tested thoroughly."

In one test shortly after the 27-acre reservoir opened in August, 8,000 rainbow were planted to see how well they will survive.

Recreation-Travel

By JIM CROSSLEY

Loaded up with his expensive camera equipment, the traveler arrives at a classically photogenic scene. First thing to greet him, at the souvenir stand, is an array of preshot color slides for sale. Everything worth shooting seems to be there. Done to perfection. Discouraging.

With these professional photos sneering at him, no wonder the just-average photographer bitterly wonders why he has invested all that money.

This is to cheer him up and urge him not to quit. Take on the professionals. Here are some tips to help. Buy a collection of the standard shots—or just duplicate them. Then go on and improvise your own personal record of having visited the spot.

1. Be it convention or true artistry, nothing impresses as much as framing the edges of the picture with tree branches or other objects in the foreground.

2. Keep backgrounds simple. Experimenting with angles of view can help. A vantage point near the ground can eliminate distracting clutter from a close-up.

3. Beat the professionals by cribbing their shots with travel companions you know in the foreground. Don't pose models artificially. They should be doing something (at least strolling) and always looking away from the camera.

4. Sometimes a flashbulb in daylight is like a match on the sun. But it will light up the foreground figures so the emphasis won't be taken away from them.

5. Before 10 a.m. and after 3 p.m. is the best time for colors. The shadows add character, as well. Beware the shadow that is the trademark of the novice—your own.

6. Travel light. But some times it is worth lugging a tripod. Night pictures with long exposures require one.

7. Get in close. Try this: After your position is picked for a shot, take two steps forward and look through the viewfinder again. That is probably where you should have stationed yourself in the first place.

8. If there's water, remember the glamor created by reflections.

9. To keep mountains impressive, don't shoot uphill. Skip the picture unless you can make use of another high vantage point across an open expanse.

10. Use the human angle to score on the professionals. Their productions must be devoid of personality. Watch for revealing human gestures or actions. Many are very humorous and are stories without words.

Pressing a button to take a picture, as strange as it sounds, is still a form of self-expression.

Scorpions can survive nine months without food in captivity.

Money Turned Back for Credit to Buy Land

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—A plan which calls for $398,000 in federal funds to be turned back to the Federal Fish and Wildlife Office in exchange for credit toward the purchase of federal lands for state use has been approved by the Arkansas Game and Fish Commission.

The commission took the action Tuesday, saying it would enable the state to buy $400,000 in federal lands this year on a 75-25 matching basis.

Gene Rush, chief of the game division, offered several recommendations which the commission approved including one calling for the prohibition of the use of dogs for hunting deer in zone 12, which includes Pulaski County.

The commission also approved recommendations that St. Francis National Forest be closed to deer hunters during the Nov. 27-29 gun hunting period, and that Caney Creek, Mud-dy Creek, Pine Creek and Sylamore Wildlife Management Area be opened to turkey hunting during the fall 1969 season.

The commission also adopted Rush's recommendation that the Nimrod Lake Area be used as a waterfowl rest area from Nov. 1 through Jan. 31 and be closed to all hunting during that period.

FALL IS BEST TIME TO REPAIR GUTTERS

By MR. FIX

When gutters and downspouts are not working properly, the overflowing water may damage foundation plantings, flood the basement, stain the side of the house or back up under roofing.

With the extra strain that ice and snow will place on gutters during the winter, plus the necessity of cleaning out leaves now, the fall is the best time to inspect and repair gutters. At the very least, they will need a cleaning and the best time for this is after all the leaves are off the trees.

A stiff brush or a whisk broom will handle the cleaning nicely. You may have to clean more than once. Allowing debris to accumulate will cause downspouts to clog and gutters to dam up.

To keep downspouts from becoming clogged, the opening at the top of each should be fitted with a special wire strainer to allow water to flow through while holding back larger matter. Remember, though, that these must be checked regularly, since a heavy accumulation of leaves and dirt will build up against the device.

Special gutter guards of mesh are available which will cover the entire gutter and will keep debris from falling into the gutter. These can be of debatable value, since small dirt can still get through and this, too, will build up in time.

When cleaning, inspect for signs of deterioration. Paint may be starting to peel or patching on the spot, then coat with more cement.

If rusting is general, you may have to replace an entire length of gutter. Check carefully wherever there is evidence of rusting.

Once you have the gutters clean, see if they drain properly—try them out with water from a garden hose. If water sits or drains slowly, check the downspout first. This may be clogged. Sometimes a light tapping with a stick will free the perhaps there may be signs of rust. The inside of the gutter, once cleaned, should be coated with a liquid roof coating.

Clogged downspouts can back up!

Sand rust spots and prime with a rust-preventative paint. If a spot has rusted through, clean away the dirt and rusted metal, then coat with roof cement. Press a piece of heavy aluminum foil, canvas or fiberglass trapped debris. A strong stream of water from a hose may force it out. If these methods fail, run a plumber's snake through the downspout.

Sometimes water will sit in a gutter in one spot because the gutter is sagging. Renail hangers or replace them entirely. Failure to do this will result in heavy ice causing further sagging in the winter.

Mother of 10 Gets Suspended Sentence

MARION, Ark. (AP)— Mrs. Croine Bell, 36, of Earle, the mother of 10 children, pleaded guilty here Tuesday to obtaining property by false pretense and received a five-year suspended sentence.

Circuit Court Judge A. S. Harrison of Blytheville suspended the sentence on Mrs. Bell's good behavior, payment of court costs and restitution to the state Welfare Department. She and three other persons were charged following an investigation into the Crittenden County federal food stamp distribution program.

"I believe the recommendation in this case is extremely lenient because you deliberately and premeditatedly took advantage of taxpayers," Harrison said. "You have 10 very good reasons why you should set an example of honesty and good citizenship."

The sentencing of Charlotte Shackelford, 23, of Crawfordsville was delayed although she also entered a plea of guilty to a charge of obtaining property from the Welfare Department by false pretense.

The discovery of falsified statements of income to the county Welfare Department to obtain federal food stamps prompted the investigation.

James Berry, 49, and Mrs. Jessie Mae Dixon, 30, both of West Memphis, were also arrested in connection with the investigation.

War Claims Two Arkansans

WASHINGTON (AP) — Two Arkansas servicemen have been killed in action in the Vietnam war, the Pentagon said Monday.

They were identified as Army 2nd Lt. Danny R. Metz, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas A. Metz of Route 1, London (Pope County), and Marine Corps Lance Cpl. Richard W. Sherrill, son of Mrs. Johanna Johnson of Route 1, Hartman (Johnson County).

Television and Radio

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP Television-Radio Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — There is nothing dreadfully wrong with NBC's new "Debbie Reynolds Show" except that we have seen it all before when the comedy reins were held tightly by an expert. Miss Reynolds, sad to report, has chosen to make her television debut in a series that is a faint carbon of "I Love Lucy."

Instead of old Fred and Ethel, Debbie has her sister Charlotte and husband. They wrangle a lot. Instead of Rickey, Debbie has a tall, handsome sportswriter husband. Debbie yearns to get a newspaper job, which is the excuse for the broad comedy and mugging.

In the first episode Tuesday, Debbie learned that the governor was going to play golf locally and her scheme was to find out his political plans by disguising herself as his caddy. You can imagine the hilarity when Debbie was caught in her facial disguise—mustache and sideburns—while still wearing a pink chiffon peignoir around the house. Then, of course, were the mad sequences when she was caddyding and did not know a driver from a spoon. Debbie Reynolds is a talented and hard-working actress, but Lucille Ball she is not.

Debbie's premiere show was followed by the return of "Julia" for its second season. Diannah Carroll's show arrived with a new character, Dr. Chegley's 92-year-old uncle who is filling in during Julia's boss' vacation. The senior Dr. Chegley—Lloyd Nolan in a white wig—added a slapstick note to the series. Back at Julia's apartment, there were the same appealing children and, in a subplot, a little lesson in human relations.

"The Dionne Warwick Special... Souled Out," to be broadcast tonight on CBS, is a colorful, tuneful hour that will brighten the livingroom screens.

The hour, seen in a preview, compressed a lot of interesting music in a wide range of moods and styles. Miss Warwick is most effective, singing numbers that range from "Alone" to religious music. Glen Campbell adds his easy manner and pleasant singing style.

Also recommended tonight: "The Courtship of Eddie's Father," ABC, premiere, 8-8:30 EDT, situation comedy starring Bill Bixby as a widower with a young son; "Room 222," ABC, premiere, 8:30-9, comedy about a history teacher in an integrated school; "Then Came Bronson," NBC, premiere, 10-11 action series about a young man roaming the country on a motorcycle.

Sports, Old Movies Tops On Campus TV

By JOAN CROSBY
NEA Entertainment Editor

NEW YORK—(NEA)—What follows is at least as accurate as a Nielsen Report: one unit for every 55,000 TV units.

It Dustin Could, Joel Can, Too*
(*Make it in movies)

By DICK KLEINER
NEA Hollywood Correspondent

HOLLYWOOD (NEA)

Joel Grey is here doing "George M." and we had lunch at The Source, one of those healthy restaurants on the Sunset Strip. They only serve salads. Now I know how a cow feels after a good graze.

There are lots of hippies grazing along the Strip. Grey is pro-hippie, although he's far from being one.

"I think they've been good for our society and our culture," he says. "I like their attitude that anything can be all right. Even obesity. Like Mama Cass, proving that fat can be attractive."

He wants to do films now, particularly his "Cabaret" role when that's filmed next spring. He's had three solid years on the stage, between "Cabaret" and "George M." and that's long enough.

"I think I can make it in films," he says. "My old friend, Dustin Hoffman, made it easier for all of us."

Joel just read "The Peter Principle," a best-seller which makes the point that people make the mistake of outreaching themselves, trying to do things beyond their capabilities. Grey thinks that applies particularly to actors—"Money tempts them to try things they really shouldn't try."

Anybody who has seen Grey on stage knows that there is very little he can't do, Peter Principle or no Peter Principle.

Come to Hollywood and be a desert painter.

That happened to set designer Al Brenner, currently working on "Monte Walsh," a big Western with Lee Marvin, Jeanne Moreau and Jack Palance.

Director William Fraker, shooting out in the desert, wanted the illusion of a barbed-wire fence stretching to infinity. He had a half-mile of fence, and anybody knows a half-mile is a bit short of infinity.

So Brenner had his crew of painters walk out into the sands and paint a fence post to match the real one—they painted the image of a post on the sand every ten feet until they reached the crest of the hill. It was a mile and a half away.

Even Michelangelo never did that.

"I don't mean to sound smarmy," said James Daly. Since I haven't the foggiest idea what smarmy sounds like, I shall just report the conversation, and let you be the judge of its smarm content.

"One of the best things about acting," he said, "is what you can learn in the process."

He ticked off what he'd learned. He once did a show about Robert E. Lee and became a Civil War buff. He played Mark Twain and became a Twainite. He played "J.B." on Broadway, had to read up on Job in the Bible, became something of a Bible scholar.

This season, on CBS, he's playing a doctor on the new Medical Center series. If he follows past procedure, he'll wind up performing tracheotomies on the kitchen table for kicks on weekends.

This is the first series for Daly since Foreign Intrigue—and if you remember that one, you're too old for bell-bottoms. But he's been busy, though, serious, over the years. And he's played many doctors. And lawyers. And some of them must have been smarmy.

If you know anybody who's Irish-Italian-French-Indian, tell them they're in luck, genetically. Hee-Haw's Jeannie Riley, who just happens to be I-I-F-I, says she's heard that the combination is a good one from a health standpoint.

"People who are Irish-Italian-French-Indian," she says, "rarely get sick."

But watch out if you're Irish-Italian-French-Indian-Malay. Nothing but trouble.

College and university students select sports, specials and old movies as their television viewing favorites.

A sports event is the No. 1 big event in dormitories.

Students interviewed admitted they liked specials, but to varying degrees.

"They are often shallow and not as fearless as they could be, but they are getting gutsy," Schultz said. "Most times though, they pull back before the conclusion and don't come to grips. I notice, too, on shows like Meet the Press, that some of the interviewers react with awe to the person they are interviewing. The reporter has a here-am-I-a-humble-Midwest-reporter-able-to-talk-to-the-vice-presidential-candidate attitude. He can get so caught up in this he forgets to ask tough questions."

Bruce Schultz spent some time after his graduation from Wisconsin living in a communal situation with hippies.

"Their big thing was Star Trek. Anything with a futuristic look and a mind-expanding, relaxing, Flash Gordon air will appeal to hippies."

Star Trek also appealed to the more conventional students, ranking behind Mission: Impossible as the favored series. Rowan and Martin's Laugh-In was third.

Does TV live up to its potential? The answer is no, but with reservations. "It assumes the audience is a little less intelligent than it really is," Schultz says. "The old William Powell-Myrna Loy films had subtlety. Why can't we have subtlety in situation comedies? They may have had a lower level of education in the days of the Powell-Loy films, too."

Jerry Steinhart sums up the feelings of college students pretty well when he is asked what he would do if he were the boss of TV. "It would depend on my motivations. If I were motivated to make money, I would continue it as it is. If I were motivated by esthetics, I would have more cultural programs. But I'll have to admit, I'd probably be motivated by money."

Now as to this report being as accurate as a Nielsen: For every 55,000 television units, Nielsen polls one unit. There are approximately 1,300 institutions of higher learning in the United States. We talked to three units—er, students.

(Newspaper Enterprise Assn.)

Among female students, Dark Shadows is a must. "Girls sit and watch and yuck it up," a student reported.

Patricia Coughlin of Paterson State College in New Jersey, however, speaking for three roommates and herself, says they watch specials: NET Playhouse, CBS Playhouse and occasionally, Mike Douglas.

"I think the children of this generation are too taken in by what TV offers," she says.

One of those is Jerry Steinhart, a recent graduate of New York's Pace College.

"I watch anything that's on," he says. Then he adds, to prove his tongue was part way in his cheek, "But not serials."

Steinhart adds, "Television is not geared to the American intellectual. It's geared for the majority of lower and middle class blue-collar workers and in that sense I think it definitely does its job."

"Most college-age people find television quite boring," Miss Coughlin says. "We watch Johnny Carson sometimes, but talk shows are growing too common and everyone is trying to do the same thing."

Bruce Schultz spent some time after his graduation from Wisconsin living in a communal situation with hippies.

'70 Pontiacs Reflect Grand Prix Influence

Front end styling of the big Pontiacs reflects the influence of the pace-setting Grand Prix (top) and its classic vertical center grille as shown on this 1970 Bonneville. The horn grilles between the center grille and headlights not only serve as outlets for the sound of the horns, but also admit additional engine cooling air. The Bonneville is powered by a new 455 cubic-inch engine that also is offered as an option on the Grand Prix. All 1970 Pontiacs go on sale September 18.

Pontiac Unveils 1970 GTO And LeMans

Both the 1970 Pontiac GTO (top) and LeMans combine sports car design and big car luxury. Both are equipped with many standard safety features including side guard door beams for added occupant protection. The GTO is offered in a convertible and two-door hardtop. The LeMans is available as a two-door coupe, two-door hardtop, four-door sedan, four-door hardtop and a station wagon. All 1970 Pontiacs go on sale September 18.

Recreation-Travel

By JIM CROSSLEY

Loaded up with his expensive camera equipment, the traveler arrives at a classically photogenic scene. First thing to greet him, at the souvenir stand, is an array of preshot color slides for sale. Everything worth shooting seems to be there. Done to perfection. Discouraging.

With these professional photos sneering at him, no wonder the just-average photographer bitterly wonders why he has invested all that money.

This is to cheer him up and urge him not to quit. Take on the professionals. Here are some tips to help. Buy a collection of the standard shots—or just duplicate them. Then go on and improvise your own personal record of having visited the spot.

1. Be it convention or true artistry, nothing impresses

as much as framing the edges of the picture with tree branches or other objects in the foreground.

2. Keep backgrounds simple. Experimenting with angles of view can help. A vantage point near the ground can eliminate distracting clutter from a close-up.

3. Beat the professionals by cribbing their shots with travel companions you know in the foreground. Don't pose models artificially. They should be doing something (at least strolling) and always looking away from the camera.

4. Sometimes a flashbulb in daylight is like a match on the sun. But it will light up the foreground figures so the emphasis won't be taken away from them.

5. Before 10 a.m. and after 3 p.m. is the best time for colors. The shadows add character, as well. Beware the shadow that is the trademark of the novice—you own.

6. Travel light. But some times it is worth lugging a tripod. Night pictures with long exposures require one.

7. Get in close. Try this: After your position is picked for a shot, take two steps forward and look through the viewfinder again. That is probably where you should have stationed yourself in the first place.

8. If there's water, remember the glamor created by reflections.

9. To keep mountains impressive, don't shoot uphill. Skip the picture unless you can make use of another high vantage point across an open expanse.

10. Use the human angle to score on the professionals. Their productions must be devoid of personality. Watch for revealing human gestures or actions. Many are very humorous and are stories without words.

Pressing a button to take a picture, as strange as it sounds, is still a form of self-expression.

Scorpions can survive nine months without food in captivity.

Money Turned Back for Credit to Buy Land

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—A plan which calls for $398,000 in federal funds be turned back to the Federal Fish and Wildlife Office in exchange for credit toward the purchase of federal lands for state use has been approved by the Arkansas Game and Fish Commission.

The commission took the action Tuesday, saying it would enable the state to buy $400,000 in federal lands this year on a 75-25 matching basis.

Gene Rush, chief of the game division, offered several recommendations which the commission approved including one calling for the prohibition of the use of dogs for hunting deer in zone 12, which includes Pulaski County.

The commission also approved recommendations that St. Francis National Forest be closed to deer hunters during the Nov. 27-29 gun hunting period, and that Caney Creek, Muddy Creek, Pine Creek and Sylamore Wildlife Management Area be opened to turkey hunting during the fall 1969 season.

The commission also adopted Rush's recommendation that the Nimrod Lake Area be used as a waterfowl rest area from Nov. 1 through Jan. 31 and be closed to all hunting during that period.

FALL IS BEST TIME TO REPAIR GUTTERS

By MR. FIX

When gutters and downspouts are not working properly, the overflowing water may damage foundation plantings, flood the basement, stain the side of the house or back up under roofing.

With the extra strain that ice and snow will place on gutters during the winter, plus the necessity of cleaning out leaves now, the fall is the best time to inspect and repair gutters. At the very least, they will need a cleaning and the best time for this is after all the leaves are off the trees.

A stiff brush or a whisk broom will handle the cleaning nicely. You may have to clean more than once. Allowing debris to accumulate will cause downspouts to clog and gutters to dam up.

To keep downspouts from becoming clogged, the opening at the top of each should be fitted with a special wire strainer to allow water to flow through while holding back larger matter. Remember, though, that these must be checked regularly, since a heavy accumulation of leaves and dirt will build up against the device.

Special gutter guards of mesh are available which will cover the entire gutter and will keep debris from falling into the gutter. These can be of debatable value, since small dirt can still get through and this, too, will build up in time.

When cleaning, inspect for signs of deterioration. Paint may be starting to peel or patching on the spot, then coat with more cement.

If rusting is general, you may have to replace an entire length of gutter. Check carefully wherever there is evidence of rusting.

Once you have the gutters clean, see if they drain properly—try them out with water from a garden hose. If water sits or drains slowly, check the downspout first. This may be clogged. Sometimes a light tapping with a stick will free the perhaps there may be signs of rust. The inside of the gutter, once cleaned, should be coated with a liquid roof coating.

Clogged downspouts can back up!

Sand rust spots and prime with a rust-preventative paint. If a spot has rusted through, clean away the dirt and rusted metal, then coat with roof cement. Press a piece of heavy aluminum foil, canvas or fiberglass trapped debris. A strong stream of water from a hose may force it out. If these methods fail, run a plumber's snake through the downspout.

Sometimes water will sit in a gutter in one spot because the gutter is sagging. Renail hangers or replace them entirely. Failure to do this will result in heavy ice causing further sagging in the winter.

Mother of 10 Gets Suspended Sentence

MARION, Ark. (AP)— Mrs. Croine Bell, 36, of Earle, the mother of 10 children, pleaded guilty here Tuesday to obtaining property by false pretense and received a five-year suspended sentence.

Circuit Court Judge A. S. Harrison of Blytheville suspended the sentence on Mrs. Bell's good behavior, payment of court costs and restitution to the state Welfare Department. She and three other persons were charged following an investigation into the Crittenden County federal food stamp distribution program.

"I believe the recommendation in this case is extremely lenient because you deliberately and premeditatedly took advantage of taxpayers," Harrison said. "You have 10 very good reasons why you should set an example of honesty and good citizenship."

The sentencing of Charlotte Shackelford, 29, of Crawfordsville was delayed although she also entered a plea of guilty to a charge of obtaining property from the Welfare Department by false pretense.

The discovery of falsified statements of income to the county Welfare Department to obtain federal food stamps prompted the investigation. James Berry, 49, and Mrs. Jessie Mae Dixon, 30, both of West Memphis, were also arrested in connection with the investigation.

This is the way it's going to be. Pontiac's 70's

Suppose that Pontiac's setting the style for the umpteenth straight year? Or is it?

But you may have already decided that Pontiac finally got it right.

Take a look at the strong, new bumper grille to the standard door, the sleek, aerodynamic lines of the front end, the smooth, flowing lines of the rear end.

And the sporty, new design of the rear end. But we popped in a 4-cylinder engine, and we got the proverbial luxury should have power.)

Enter LeMans Sport. A brand new series in the Pontiac stable. World competition sees it pull the new 400-cubic-inch under the hood. We'll show you that one if you check the right box on the order form.

By now you've spotted our '70 GTO. But maybe you haven't heard it. And so, though we've been modestly to the wind and dubbed it GTO, "The Thunder."

This is Pontiac's '70. And we figure that is the way driving's going to be. So why wait?

It's at your Pontiac dealer's, now.

War Claims Two Arkansans

WASHINGTON (AP) — Two Arkansas servicemen have been killed in action in the Vietnam war, the Pentagon said Monday.

They were identified as Army 2nd Lt. Danny R. Metz, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas A. Metz of Route 1, London (Pope County), and Marine Corps Lance Cpl. Richard W. Sherrill, son of Mrs. Johanna Johnson of Route 1, Hartman (Johnson County).

Television and Radio

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP Television-Radio Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — There is nothing dreadfully wrong with NBC's new "Debbie Reynolds Show" except that we have seen it all before when the comedy reins were held tightly by an expert. Miss Reynolds, sad to report, has chosen to make her television debut in a series that is a faint carbon of "I Love Lucy."

Instead of old Fred and Ethel, Debbie has her sister Charlotte and husband. They wrangle a lot. Instead of Ricky, Debbie has a tall, handsome sportswriter husband. Debbie yearns to get a newspaper job, which is the excuse for the broad comedy and mugging.

In the first episode Tuesday, Debbie learned that the governor was going to play golf locally and her scheme was to find out his political plans by disguising herself as his caddy. You can imagine the hilarity when Debbie was caught in her facial disguise—mustache and sideburns—while still wearing a pink chiffon peignoir around the house. Then, of course, were the mad sequences when she was caddyding and did not know a driver from a spoon. Debbie Reynolds is a talented and hard-working actress, but Lucille Ball she is not.

Debbie's premiere show was followed by the return of "Julia" for its second season. Diahann Carroll's show arrived with a new character, Dr. Chegeley's 92-year-old uncle who is filling in during Julia's boss' vacation. The senior Dr. Chegeley—Lloyd Nolan in a white wig—added a slapstick note to the series. Back at Julia's apartment, there were the same appealing children and, in a subplot, a little lesson in human relations.

"The Dionne Warwick Special... Souled Out," to be broadcast tonight on CBS, is a colorful, tuneful hour that will brighten the living room screens.

The hour, seen in a preview, compressed a lot of interesting music in a wide range of moods and styles. Miss Warwick is most effective, singing numbers that range from "Ain't" to religious music. Glen Campbell adds his easy manner and pleasant singing style.

Also recommended tonight: "The Courtship of Eddie's Father," ABC, premiere, 8-8:30 EDT, situation comedy starring Bill Bixby as a widower with a young son; "Room 222," ABC, premiere, 8:30-9, comedy about a history teacher in an integrated school; "Then Came Bronson," NBC, premiere, 10-11 action series about a young man roaming the country on a motorcycle.

Sports, Old Movies Tops On Campus TV

By JOAN CROSBY
NEA Entertainment Editor
NEW YORK—(NEA)—What follows is at least as accurate as a Nielsen Report—one unit for every 55,000 TV units.

College and university students select sports, specials and old movies as their television viewing favorites.

"A sports event is the No. 1 big event in dormitories," says Bruce Schultz, a graduate student at New York University. A journalism major at the University of Wisconsin prior to his N.Y.U. studies, Schultz said every one showed up in the TV lounge to watch the big Sunday afternoon football games.

Students interviewed admitted they liked specials, but to varying degrees.

"They are often shallow and not as fearless as they could be, but they are getting gutsy," Schultz said. "Most times though, they pull back before the conclusion and don't come to grips. I notice, too, on shows like Meet the Press, that some of the interviewers react with awe to the person they are interviewing. The reporter has a here-am-I-a-humble-Midwest-reporter-able-to-talk-to-the-vice-presidential-candidate attitude. He can get so caught up in this he forgets to ask tough questions."

Film festivals of old W. C. Fields, Mae West or Lloyd Nolan (yes, Lloyd Nolan) movies are considered kooky. Anything that's campy can get a college audience, at least while the fad lasts. Thus Batman and The Addams Family were most college viewing during the first few months they were telecast.

Among female students, Dark Shadows is a must. "Girls sit and watch and yuck it up," a student reported.

Patricia Coughlin of Paterson State College in New Jersey, however, speaking for three roommates and herself, says they watch specials: NET Playhouse, CBS Playhouse and occasionally, Mike Douglas.

"I think the children of this generation are too taken in by what TV offers," she says.

One of those is Jerry Steinhardt, a recent graduate of New York's Pace College.

"I watch anything that's on," he says. Then he adds, to prove his tongue was part way in his cheek, "But not serials."

Steinhardt adds, "Television is not geared to the American intellectual. It's geared for the majority of lower and middle class blue-collar workers and, in that sense, I think it definitely does its job."

"Most college-age people find television quite boring," Miss Coughlin says. "We watch Johnny Carson sometimes, but talk shows are growing too common and everyone is trying to do the same thing."

Bruce Schultz spent some time after his graduation from Wisconsin living in a communal situation with hippies.

"Their big thing was Star Trek. Anything with a futuristic look and a mind-expanding, relaxing, Flash Gordon air will appeal to hippies."

Star Trek also appealed to the more conventional students, ranking behind Mission: Impossible as the favored series. Rowan and Martin's Laugh-In was third.

Does TV live up to its potential? The answer is no, but with reservations. "It assumes the audience is a little less intelligent than it really is," Schultz says. "The old William Powell-Myrna Loy films had subtlety. Why can't we have subtlety in situation comedies? They may have had a lower level of education in the days of the Powell-Loy films, too."

Jerry Steinhardt sums up the feelings of college students pretty well when he is asked what he would do if he were the boss of TV. "It would depend on my motivations. If I were motivated to make money, I would continue it as it is. If I were motivated by esthetics, I would have more cultural programs. But I'll have to admit, I'd probably be motivated by money."

Now as to this report being as accurate as a Nielsen: For every 55,000 television units, Nielsen polls one unit. There are approximately 1,300 institutions of higher learning in the United States. We talked to three units—er, students.

If Dustin Could, Joel Can, Too

(*Make it in movies)

By DICK KLEINER
NEA Hollywood Correspondent

Joel Grey is here doing "George M" and we had lunch at The Source, one of those healthy restaurants on the Sunset Strip. They only serve salads. Now I know how a cow feels after a good graze.

There are lots of hippies grazing along the Strip. Grey is pro-hippie, although he's far from being one.

"I think they've been good for our society and our culture," he says. "I like their attitude that anything can be all right. Even obesity. Like Mama Cass, proving that fat can be attractive."

He wants to do films now, particularly his "Cabaret" role when that's filmed next spring. He's had three solid years on the stage, between "Cabaret" and "George M," and that's long enough.

"I think I can make it in films," he says. "My old friend, Dustin Hoffman, made it easier for all of us."

Joel just read "The Peter Principle," a best-seller which makes the point that people make the mistake of outgrowing themselves, trying to do things beyond their capabilities. Grey thinks that applies particularly to actors—"Money tempts them to try things they really shouldn't try."

Anybody who has seen Grey on stage knows that there is very little he can't do, Peter Principle or no Peter Principle.

Come to Hollywood and be a desert painter.

That happened to set designer Al Brenner, currently working on "Monte Walsh," a big Western with Lee Marvin, Jeanne Moreau and Jack Palance.

Director William Fraker, shooting out in the desert, wanted the illusion of a barbed-wire fence stretching to infinity. He had a half-mile of fence, and anybody knows a half-mile is a bit short of infinity.

So Brenner had his crew of painters walk out into the sands and paint a fence post to match the real one—they painted the image of a post on the sand every ten feet until they reached the crest of the hill. It was a mile and a half away.

Even Michelangelo never did that.

"I don't mean to sound smarmy," said James Daly. Since I haven't the foggiest idea what smarmy sounds like, I shall just report the conversation, and let you be the judge of its smarm content.

"One of the best things about acting," he said, "is what you can learn in the process."

He ticked off what he'd learned. He once did a show about Robert E. Lee and became a Civil War buff. He played Mark Twain and became a Twainee. He played "J.B." on Broadway, had to read up on Job in the Bible, became something of a Bible scholar.

This season, on CBS, he's playing a doctor on the new Medical Center series. If he follows past procedure, he'll wind up performing tracheotomies on the kitchen table for kicks on weekends.

This is the first series for Daly since Foreign Intrigue—and if you remember that one, you're too old for bell-bottoms. But he's been busy, though serious, over the years. And he's played many doctors. And lawyers. And some of them must have been smarmy.

If you know anybody who's Irish-Italian-French-Indian, tell them they're in luck, genetically. Hee-Haw's Jeannine Riley, who just happens to be I-I-F-I, says she's heard that the combination is a good one from a health standpoint.

"People who are Irish-Italian-French-Indian," she says, "rarely get sick."

But watch out if you're Irish-Italian-French-Indian-Malay. Nothing but trouble.

College Football's BEST BLOOPERS

5th-Down Game

Among other things, the "Fifth-Down Game" between Cornell and Dartmouth in 1940 is remembered as the game that took 72 hours to decide.

It also is remembered by Dartmouth alumni as the time a lowly Green team upset the nation's No. 1 team, 3-0. W. H. (Red) Friesell remembers it for other reasons, however. He's the official who O.K.'d the fifth down.

The game was savage. Dartmouth's Bob Krieger kicked a field goal to start the fourth quarter and the Green played defense the rest of the game. Twice, long drives by Cornell were stopped. Then the Big Red drove to the Dartmouth six with only seconds remaining.

Three running plays failed and a penalty for an extra time out moved the ball back to the six. Here, a pass failed.

Then it happened. Referee Friesell hesitated, turned once and then signaled that it was still Cornell's ball, fourth down. Arguments broke out throughout the stands and on the field the official was surrounded by Dartmouth players as Cornell scored and raced off the field with an apparent 7-3 victory.

Films later showed the official's mistake and Cornell graciously relinquished its claim to victory.

Democratic Policy Group About Ready

By WALTER R. MEARS
AP Political Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Democratic National Committee's new policy council is finally ready for business—and it may provide Hubert H. Humphrey with a platform from which to challenge President Nixon's performance.

Humphrey, the party's 1968 defeated presidential nominee and a possible candidate again in 1972, is chairman of the panel assigned to keep vigil on the Republicans.

Sen. Fred R. Harris of Oklahoma, the party chairman, and Sen. Edmund S. Muskie of Maine, the 1968 nominee for vice president, are vice chairmen of the Democratic policy council, which has been some eight months in the making.

Muskie and even Harris are considered possible 1972 candidates for the Democratic presidential nod.

Harris announced the council's makeup on the eve of a conference of Democratic state chairmen today, and a meeting of the national committee Thursday.

He appointed 20 Democrats, among them three governors, three senators, three members of the House and two big-city mayors, to the council executive committee.

Harris said 30 prominent Democrats later would be named members at large and six committees which deal with policy and issues in major areas.

Harris hopes liaison, and general agreement on the issues, would avoid the problem faced by a similar group during the Republican Eisenhower administration when Democratic congressional leaders regarded the council as an intruder.

Sen. Mike Mansfield, the Democratic leader, said he would be glad to work with the new council.

Here Is Killed In Auto Crash

HARTFORD, Vt. (AP) —

Three days after he rescued two boys in a flaming auto crash in which four others died, Bernard Hamel, 21, of Concord, N.H., was killed in the crash of his car.

A highway department crew, attracted by a broken guardrail, found Hamel's body and that of Darlene Merchant, 21, of White River Junction, in Hamel's wrecked car Tuesday.

Hamel was a construction worker employed in Vermont.

Last Saturday, at Bow, N.H., near Concord, Hamel came along just as two cars collided head on and burst into flames. He pulled the two boys from the wreckage of one of the cars.

Bodies Must Be Held for Inquiries

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The attorney general's office said Tuesday that coroners in Arkansas must not release a body for embalming if it is subject to further inquiry by the state medical examiner.

The opinion, written by Asst. Atty. Gen. Tom Tanner, went to Dr. Winston K. Shorey, dean of the University of Arkansas School of Medicine.

The opinion was obtained at the request of Dr. Rodney Carlton, state medical examiner, who said he had a dozen instances in which bodies had been released for embalming and later become an object of further examination.

The attorney general's office also said statutes revealed no authority for anyone other than the state medical examiner and qualified persons appointed by him to investigate and perform autopsies.
